Good morning John, the exhibits I have shared in the the three emails are the only items I'm putting up on screen share tonight.

Bob please let me know if I need to do anything further.

Thank you, Esther.... the board's rules we have adopted require all exhibits that will be discussed on a particular night be in by noon that day. So that would include any additional material in your screen share. That's necessary for the board to have time to read and prepare questions. Please confer with Attorney Sullivan as a resource. We have to apply these rules to both sides equally.

Good morning everyone, I was uploading the Exhibits to send and the file was to big so I have them in groups of 5. These are also the Exhibits that I will be presenting during my screen share time at our Zoom meeting tonight.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you

Esther

We have an immoral council woman who is also serial saboteur and actively works against the city's community efforts. I have a big issue with that.

She registered the Pop Up Portsmouth name so the working group couldn't use it. Same with the domain name. Why would a sitting councilor actively try to harm recovery efforts? @BethDinan

Friendly daily reminder to demand the resignation of Esther Kennedy who lied to the paper and to the public.

Clearly she knows what fiscal sponsorship means for fundraising. She is the administrator of the Clipper Fund.

I filed two ethics complaints against Portsmouth City Councilor Esther Kennedy, who stole the legal name out from under a community group forming a nonprofit to help with Covid Recovery. Despicable. #ResignEsther

When she was found out, she invented a campaign of misinformation to deflect the blame & point it at the community volunteers working on recovery efforts

Nancy Yes, And Pearson @Nancy_Pearson20 · Jul 27

Even more bizarrely, this isn't the first time she's done this. She also stole the trade name and domain name out from under Portsmouth 400, the volunteer community group working on our city's 400th anniversary celebration

Nancy Yes, And Pearson @Nancy_Pearson20 · Jul 27

So there's a pattern of malevolence directed at groups connected to the city. She has stepped over every line and should resign mediatly. There is no way the public can trust her. I filed a formal complaint because I want to be sure she is held accountable

Nancy Pearson shared an event.

Admin · 21h · 😊

On June 15, the newly formed Citizens response Task Force made a plea to the city council to fully support and fund recovery efforts such as expanded outdoor dining and the Pop Up (then Rooftop) project. They talked about the goals of the project to "save businesses, provide jobs, and provide safe options for the public." They stressed that the city needed to "move fast, not try to be perfect out of the start, and adjust on the fly as needed." Senator Martha Fuller Clark also spoke to Council at that evening, stating these efforts were a "plea for arts and culture" and that the city should be prepared to "modify and move forward" as needed.

And pivot the Pop Up working group did. Changing venue, changing capacity, configuration, forming a nonprofit, even narrowing the focus from 'local' to 'Portsmouth' based businesses. Even with opening dates pushed back, the team moved forward.

The Task Force chairs informed the Council how the community came together to support the arts and business community, giving their time and expertise to the city for free. They expressed the enormous good will and positive energy behind these efforts. Donations exceeded expectations.

Now look at our community. Look what chaos one person can cause. Contradictory to all information provided to her in her official capacity as a council member, Esther Kennedy invented her own reality and torpedoed the Pop Up project with intent to sink it.

But she didn't sink it. The volunteers are too focused and dedicated. The city support, including the Task Force, is too professional. But the community is listing. Arguments are breaking out, accusations, based on her misinformation campaign, are being hurled at one another. Let's not let Esther win.

I know the amazing people in this community and they will rise above. Let's do it together and leave the sabotaging tactics of Esther Kennedy behind. There is no place for that kind of intentional menace and malpractice in this wonderful, awesome, dynamic community.

Put on your mask and pick up your sign. Join us tomorrow and send Esther the message that it's time for her to step down and leave us in peace.
